Mr. Washburn took his quilt of blackjack from his mouth and held it as the drooping ears of old Moll. It stuck midway between, where it stuck like a tenacious tortoise. With a desperate flourish of the wisp he dislodged it, and with a clucking and snore of his carotid, moaned—

"Conceit was what I was worth for, I'm a wonderful water myself, an' I do love Ma's creamed chicken, so when she let it on me that there way, I was so tickled with the manner I'd managed things that I had to get busy buckin' old Bess's hamstraps together so'n I wouldn't see no grunts."

"I doubt like if they'll appreciate it, ma, says I as I climbed into the dormer."

"I can't help it if they don't," she comes back at me; "I'm gone," to do your part, an' you got to do yours which is to get them fulla here on the tick of seven," says she."

Here Mr. Washburn consulted a big, long-ticking watch, and with a muttered something up started up.

Simultaneously the old team waked up and broke into a shambling trot that carried the complaining vehicle around another curve at a merry clip, and there swam into view the settlement of Lookop.

For back along the road the driver had pointed it out to his visitors from the pinnacle of a high hill, and they had seen it nestling like a bed of white daisies in the heart of a green valley bordered on the one side by a wide lake, on the other by hills veined with white water courses. Now they saw that what had looked like daisies on a bed of green were really houses built of unpainted lumber, twenty or thirty all then resting on the slope of a big hill. In front lay the deep water, warm in the sapphire glow of a set sun, back of the homestead—the hills topped with variegated glories of color, green melting to brown-yellow, daisy-grey bluish to bronze, white high above, and then, thicker, a hazy sheen of purple and amethyst hung suspended like the lid of a great bowl, a ture of indescribable grandeur up held by unseen hands.

"That there's Lookop," shouted the driver over his shoulder, above the Gattling-gun reports from the loose spokes in the off hind wheel, for the sleepy, restless, scintillant good foot of hay and corn not far off, had broken into a stiff career, and was taking the slope like a pair of bounding Jack-rabbits, a curved line of white road with a speed that threatened to overturn the decrepit demerol. As they passed the first house of unpainted boards a pair of husky dogs crept out and with uplifted neck-brittles and bared teeth watched them curiously.

As he spoke they rounded a slight twist in the white road with a speed that threatened to overturn the decrepit demerol. As they passed the first house of unpainted boards a pair of husky dogs crept out and with uplifted neck-brittles and bared teeth watched them curiously.

Farther on, a big St. Bernard homed across the road straight in front of the sorrels and gave one or two deep barks of welcome, and as they passed the several plain dwellings of Lookop, canines of all kinds and descriptions came forth to welcome their welcome or protest.

"Sled dogs," explained the driver, "couldn't do without 'em up here."

He shook the "lines" and yelled to the team, and with a flourish of their sorrel tails, the aged horses leaped forward like charges eager for the fray, straight into the heart of a big tamarack grove through which the grey road twisted.

In the cool shadow of this miniature forest the lights were pale and subdued; purple, yellow, and opal, scintillating so faintly as to be scarcely discernible through the flooring screen that rested above a flooring of pale-green moss.

Then, as the road curved once more, they dipped into a wide green open, with the big lake sleeping before it and the big forest-crowned hills awaiting beyond it.

In the very heart of this open stood a long, wide, honey-combed cabin, and alongside of this cabin, with a jerk of his elbows and a "Whew, their old gals!" P. A. Washburn drew up to a flourish.

"This here is our place, an' you're welcome to it an' all it holds," he cried heartily, "Sposin' we light."

Suiting the action to the words, with one bound he sprang free of the big, and before the girl could think the found herself lifted in a pair of strong arms and deposited gently upon the spongy sward before the cabin door.

She laughed and shook herself like a spaniel who had been unexpectedly treated to a ducking in the water he was born to love, and turned a foolish face towards her uncle, just in time to see that dignified gentleman being treated in a like manner. As he was placed gently beside her, she turned with a half-amused, half-irritated expression towards her.

"Good bless my soul!" muttered Edna, dead as like living in the plethoric days. "I haven't been lifted in this fashion since I used to play with heads in the hay-mow on the old home-farm. Gosh! I wish you would drop a hint to our strong-arm friend there that I can't stand these dumpy old stunts."

Just here there emerged from the arms of the woman of mature years those plump, bare arms were smeared with flour and those big, round eyes fairly beamed with welcome.

"Welly, you little dear, you," she cried, planting a motherly kiss on the cheek of the girl, "I know you're 'bout dead tired out, and like as not hungry as a new-weaned calf. Come along in and get some supper!"

"Ma!" introduced P. A. Washburn, "this here is Mr. Dayton, who's your lady's uncle, and Mr. Dayton, who's your Ma's brother, and your woman in Lookop, best cook in Ontario."

"How do, sis," beamed Mrs. Washburn. "Come along in, you and the young lady. I'll bet you're hungry as a cat, and supper's ready and waitin'!"

Pasture for Stock

Varieties of Grasses That Serve Useful Purposes in the West

Feeding cattle has been one of the expedients adopted last year by a number of farmers in the vicinity of Moose Jaw, Mr. G. Stewart, of that place, rather than the dry, farming delegates at the Swift Current conference, by stating that not only did the Russian thistle (thistle) grow in the pastures, but that it had a real food value. He himself had a bunch of horses that in the winter he grazed on the thistle, and he believed it had great possibilities as a pasture crop. Cattle, sheep and horses will eat it indubitably had a nutritive value.

Mr. Stewart called attention to the important part that pasture plays in the feeding of cattle, and he expressed the opinion that it would be a still greater factor in the future. Speaking of the grasses which he had cultivated in the southwest, Mr. Stewart gave it as his opinion that the perennial grasses, legumes and clovers were the best.

He thought that bromine grass was perhaps the most valuable of the perennials, although a danger existed in that in the grass being rooted.

This was not such a danger as it appeared at first sight because it was necessary in this district to have grass that could be worked into a rotation to give the fibre to prevent soil drying.

Among the legumes, alfalfa and sweet clover were the most suitable, and both could be grown to good advantage in the southwest. Cattle as a rule have to acquire the habit of eating clover, but he felt like to like it. The chief advantage to be derived from growing this class of food is that it not only provides a feed, but also enriches the soil.

Speaking of the cereals Mr. Stewart suggested that fall and winter wheat possibilities in the southwest. All stock will eat it as a pasture crop and sown early in the fall it makes one of the best crops since the spring of 1895.

In Manitoba the climate has apparently moderated since the early seventies, when the River colonies survived to produce enough food to last over the winter. Between the professional farmers who have the science to prove their case, and the farmers whose memories cannot be much at fault, there is a conflict of evidence. It seems almost certain that the removal of trees induces climate, and it is more than probable that the breaking up of wide areas of raw land is also a factor in determining the climate.—Montreal Family Herald.

Canada is destined to become the greatest cattle raising country in the world—muskox and reindeer filling the semi-Arctic lands of the far north. These animals need no barn nor feed—being able to provide their own food and shelter. The muskox is a gigantic sheep, the meat of which tastes like beef while its wool is twice as thick as that of a sheep. The muskox feeds on grass and the reindeer on lichen.

Since the war in 1914 the number of horses in the United States on farms has increased 147,000; the number of mules is 546,000 greater.

Encourage Sheep Raising

Although West Offers Unequaled Advantage Few Sheep Are Raised

At the opening of Edmonton's summer exhibition, Dr. S. F. Tolin, minister of Agriculture, replied to an inquiry from the exhibitors of the exhibition association and officially declared the fair opened. The West can surely be congratulated in having for the first time such exhibitions as those of Edmonton, Calgary, Regina and Brandon, declared Dr. Tolin. Such exhibitions were of particular interest to the Federal Department of Agriculture which was keenly alive to the value of these affairs. "We are trying to popularize the consumption of more mutton, as well as encouraging sheep raising," declared Dr. Tolin. "It is rather appalling that we only raise 1,000,000 sheep here, when in Australia they raise 80,000,000, in the United States 40,000,000 and in Great Britain 60,000,000. This country offers almost unequalled advantages for sheep raising, and there is scarcely a farm stock raiser in the West who does not keep a small flock. They are not only useful for cleaning up fields, but use a great deal of feed that is ordinarily wasted."

Cultivation and Rainfall Open Question as to Whether Climate Changes as Settlement Proceeds

Not much comfort was given to the settlers in the dry districts of Saskatchewan (during operations) at the meteorological conference at Swift Current a few days ago. While the full knowledge of the records of rainfall for the past three years was before them, he could not agree with the statements frequently made that the climate undergoes a change in the present decade.

In Europe and Asia where observations have been made for centuries, there is no marked increase or decrease in the supply of moisture. The United States Weather Bureau gives similar results to the records of rainfall in Kansas, Nebraska and other western states. These conclusions are in accordance with the views held by farmers, and generally accepted by well-informed people. Any number of clerical men with experience of life in the west or northern Ontario will testify that to their knowledge the summer droughts are more frequent than the forests were removed, and that late spring frosts are not so destructive as in the early days. All are agreed that fall and winter are back to the sixties of last century can tell, not only of potatoes, but of fields of grain being destroyed. No severe frosts have occurred since the spring of 1895. In Manitoba the climate has apparently moderated since the early seventies, when the River colonies survived to produce enough food to last over the winter. Between the professional farmers who have the science to prove their case, and the farmers whose memories cannot be much at fault, there is a conflict of evidence. Emigrants from Britain

Every Part of Canada Will Benefit From the Influx

Every part of Canada is to benefit by the influx of Imperial exiles who are coming to the Dominion to settle on farms under the special scheme decreed upon by the Imperial and Dominion governments last year. Those already selected by the Dominion representatives, W. E. Scott, of the Dominion department of agriculture, British Columbia, and Russell Wilson of Saskatchewan, will bring about a million dollars in cash, said Mr. Scott, at Halifax from the Cunard liner Caronia en route with Mr. Wilson in Ottawa where they will make an official report.

Of the thousands of applicants about 700 have been found suitable, during the summer in England of Messrs. Scott and Wilson. They are not the professional army officers type of men Mr. Scott said, but mostly were civilians before the war. They are sound and adaptable and come from York, Nottingham, Wales and Scotland, the best agricultural sections of the Old Land, and Mr. Scott declared they will adapt themselves to conditions here and make ideal farm settlers.

That Canada should get as many of this mass of settlers as possible is Mr. Scott's opinion, as Australia and New Zealand are going to send agents there this fall for the same kind of men and will offer big inducements. The ten agents did not get as good a list of bread since they left Canada, they declared, Britain and many other parts of the world being short of wheat. Therefore they say there will be big prices for all the food produce Canada can export for years to come.

Newspaper Costs Still Mounting The cost of the newspapers on which newspapers are printed continues steadily upward. The increased price which went into force on July 1st represents an added expense for Canadian publishers of not less than the huge sum of eight million dollars.

Fertile Plains

Following is a copy of the paper given by Mrs. Snales on July 10th.

It has been suggested that I say a few words this evening on Politics. As this is a subject that would take some time to cover properly I am going to deal with the women's part in Political life.

It is only recently that women have been given the right to exercise the franchise and we now have a responsibility which we never had before.

Now the question that comes to me is—have we sufficient knowledge of political affairs to vote intelligently at any election? The men have been doing all the governing of the country in the past and on the whole, we have been informed on the great problems of the day and the women.

The time has come when the influence of the women in the election will be felt and it is up to us to study all questions affecting the Government of the country so that when an election comes we will know what we stand for and cast our votes accordingly. If we have not sufficient knowledge of Political Affairs at the present time to vote intelligently how are we going to get this knowledge? There are many ways in which we can inform ourselves of what is going on in the country.

What problems the Gov't has to solve and we can form our own ideas as to the solution of these problems. One way is to read the papers carefully. The average woman does not read anything regarding the doings of our Gov't and the newspaper is a medium through which we can learn a lot.

Another way is to join the C.P.W.A. where we can meet and discuss the problems of the day and benefit by one another's knowledge.

The Central Office sent out circulars which very often contain matter for lively discussion at our meetings, a discussion of these subjects would be very helpful to us. There is another thing which women should interest themselves in, that is the election of women to the Dominion and Province Parliament. The men did not always understand the problem which confront the women no matter how sympathetic they have been towards passing Legislation which women may require.

Without a proper understanding of these problems they have failed to solve them. With women in Parliament they would be able to offer advice and assist with their votes in passing legislation which they require and could aid in defeating legislation which they believe would be against the interests of women. I believe that the greatest fault with men in the past is that they have been lined up with a certain party, generally the one their father voted for and have voted for this party whether right or wrong for the greatest part of their lives. Now I hope the women will stand clear of party and judge every question and every party by its merits.

Don't always vote the way your husbands vote. They may be voting for their party, keep clear of this. Above all don't neglect to vote, but vote the way you think right and we women are bound to accomplish some thing for the good of our country.

Watch for Mrs. Sorenson's paper on "Education" which will appear in the next issue of the Review.

Trade Negotiations With Russia Cannot Proceed

Montreal.—The Montreal Star publishes the following cable from London: "After weeks of conferences with Gregory Krassin over Soviet Russia's proposals to grant concessions to the rest of the world in return for the re-establishment of trade relations; after a bitter international debate in which Great Britain's hand was very nearly precipitated a break between herself and her allies, and after getting to a point where resumption of commerce might have been expected the deal is off."

It was given out authoritatively that all trade negotiations with Russia have been definitely ended for the present, and that Russia can look for no more conference until she has abundantly at a stop to her army work against Poland.

Great Britain sent out a decisive note, said Krassin to the Soviet government at Moscow that they need not send any more trade delegations to London with any expectation of a hearing.

The note expressed amazement at the continued offensive of the Soviet government, and the fact that Russia must give up her aggressive intentions in exchange for equitable treatment from Great Britain.

Secure Best Prices for Wheat

Don't Rush to Sell, Says Toronto World to Farmers

Toronto.—"There need be no great hurry to rush to sell under the prevailing conditions," is the advice of the Toronto World to Canadian farmers in regard to their wheat. "For the next three weeks," says the World, "the bulls and bears will be sending out contradictory reports of the yield of blights, or rust, of the grain unripened, perhaps frozen wheat. In spite of all this the indications are of a big yield and high prices."

The farmers of Canada have better transportation in the way of railways, train equipment and a more efficient marine, the best we ever had than have the farmers of the states. We can sell and deliver wheat to them better than we can compete with them in Europe."

Demonstration for Prince of Wales

Dramatic Scenes Enacted at Adelaide for Departure for Tasmania

Sydney, Australia.—The Prince of Wales has sailed for Tasmania. Extraordinary scenes of enthusiasm occurred when he departed from Adelaide on Saturday. The prince and his party were met by a large number of people in several places at that city. He won the five-furlong spirit in the line of one minute and eight seconds.

Of the demonstrations that have occurred in Australia, none was more dramatic than that when the prince addressed 4,000 women war workers. He asked them to treat him as a comrade, the same as the diggers have done.

As his Royal Highness left the hall he passed through cheering, weeping, flag-waving rows of women.

Privy Council Decision Settles Matter

Remaining Strike Leaders Will Call On Appeals Now

Winnipeg.—The decision of the privy council in Russell's case will be accepted as disposing of contemplated appeals on behalf of the other convicted Winnipeg labor leaders, it was intimated by James Law, secretary of the defence committee.

Law said he had no word as yet from Mr. Truman or from his London agents, but accepting the press report on the case as accurate, he intimates that there would seem to be no advantage in entering further appeals, which would of necessity have to be argued along lines similar to the Russell appeal.

Germany to Remain Neutral

Berlin.—An official statement was issued declaring Germany's complete neutrality in the situation arising from the hostilities between Russia and Poland. The statement was signed by president Ebert and Minister Simons.

RUSSIA REFUSES TO CEASE WAR ON POLAND

CALLS IT A ROBBER WAR

Lenine Blames Britain and the League of Nations

Trouble

London.—Refusal of the Russian Soviet government to cease war against Poland at the behest of Great Britain contained in a Moscow wireless despatch. The refusal also constitutes an appeal to the workers and peasants of Soviet Russia and the Ukraine. It is signed by Premier Lenine, minister of war, Trotsky, the foreign minister, Tchitcherin and Kuroki, commissioners of justice and says:

"The British government addressed a proposal to us, July 11, to cease our aggressive and brutal war against Poland. It is signed by Premier Lenine, minister of war, Trotsky, the foreign minister, Tchitcherin and Kuroki, commissioners of justice and says:

"In the same note it was proposed that General Wrangel and his Cossack army should not be touched. To all this we, the council of peoples' commissars, have answered in refusal. If England had desired this they would have stopped supplying Poland with munitions and money."

"Lord Curzon, the British foreign secretary, places it upon the League of Nations, in whose name he is making the proposal, but Poland enters into the composition of this League—Poland, who commenced a robber war against us."

"All the members of the league, except France, England and the United States are bound hand and foot in this provocative war of Poland against Russia and Ukraine. Our refusal of hostile mediation does not mean that we have altered our policy towards Poland. Moscow more than once has proposed peace to Warsaw, and if she will now appeal to us directly, peaceful relations will be established between Russia and Poland, sooner, better and more substantially in this way."

The communication says the real frontiers which the Soviet government has established for 20 millions of the Polish people will be east of the frontier marked by the Imperialists in London and Paris, who are equally inimical and hostile to the workers of Poland and Russia."

The communication declares: "Desires to receive an honest peace and an honest frontier and find in the person of Russia a brotherly neighbor, it is necessary that the Polish people should seek it."

Will Secure Grave Photos

Ottawa.—Emphasis being given to a statement appearing that no more photographs of soldiers' graves would be supplied to relatives pending a storage of funds. At the militia department it was explained that a Canadian photographic staff is still maintained overseas.

Every Canadian grave in France and Belgium is to be photographed and copies of the photograph in each case will be sent automatically to the next of kin through military headquarters at Ottawa.

Cost of Living in England

London.—The minister of labor statistics show an increase in the cost of living in the British Isles of 152 percent above the level of 1914.

TO PROSECUTE DEFAULTERS OF INCOME TAX

PROSECUTIONS SIMPLIFIED

Willful Defaulters of Federal Tax May Find a Rude Awakening

Ottawa.—Revenue from income taxation in 1914 was expected to total $400,000,000. While this is not in excess of last year, it is attributable to the fact that the measure of excess profits is not nearly as large now as was the case in 1914 when the collections were based on the last year of the war.

An amendment made to the act this year simplifies the prosecution of defaulters and it was announced today that there will be extensive prosecutions of delinquents, failure to make a return and the subsequent registration of a notice to the party is sufficient proof under the new act to secure conviction.

Winnipeg.—A special despatch to the Free Press from its Ottawa correspondent reads:

Willful defaulters from federal income taxation may find a rude awakening from the slumber of security into which a recent bill in prosecution has rocked them. Even now the office of commissioner of taxation is preparing a long list of the prescribed and police court proceedings throughout the Dominion will be varied duties and expenses, witnesses were required. Under the amendments to the act passed last session, however, a registered letter is sent to the defaulter notifying him to make his return. If he fails to do so an affidavit is made out to the effect that his return has not been made. The fact of registration coupled with the affidavit is all that is required for prosecution and witnesses are not required. The chief reason for the bill in prosecutions recently is the fact that the department has been awaiting the facilitation mentioned. Now it can and will go ahead. The person found guilty is subject to two penalties. In the first place delay beyond the prescribed time in putting in returns subjects him to an additional imposition of 24 percent of his assessment. In the second place he is subject to the penalty imposed for willful default.

To Raise U.S. Railway Rates

Interstate Commerce Commission to Be Asked for Substantial Increase

Washington.—Freight and passenger transportation in the United States are to bear a substantial portion of the rate to be asked by the railroads of the interstate commerce commission to offset the $600,000,000 added expense caused by the labor boys' wage award, it was announced by A. H. Thorne, general counsel for the association of railway executives.

Floods in B. C. Cause Heavy Loss

Vancouver, B. C.—Through the efforts of the farmers at Matsqui, B.C., the 40-foot break in the dyke has been stopped up and the invading waters of the flooded Fraser held back from 10,000 acres of choice farm land. At Nicomen Island, the flood caused serious damage, inundating 4,000 acres of fruit land. The loss is placed at $200,000.

May Appoint New Minister in London

Some Difficulty May Be Found in Filling the Position Now Occupied by Aspinall

Winnipeg.—A special despatch to the Free Press from its Ottawa correspondent reads:

No confirmation of the report that the status of Canada's federal representative in London is to be changed and that Sir George Perley is to be replaced by a resident minister, can be secured here for the reason that the premier is in Montreal, and there is nobody left behind who will take the responsibility of affiliation or denial.

His rumor is by no means new, in fact it has been current ever since Sir George Perley made it known over a year ago that he desired to retire from the high commissionership and return to his business in Canada.

The position appears to be about as hard to fill as that of Canadian representative in Washington. It differs from the latter in an important respect. It is essentially a trade position, which the other is diplomatic. The man upon whom the choice falls for the Washington position may find himself at any time in full charge of the British embassy.

Sir George Foster's name has been mentioned many times for the London position, but Sir George is not a young man any longer, neither is he a man of very considerable means, and youth and means are both required to grace the position. For the Washington position, Sir Robert Borden, Hon. N. W. Rowell, Mr. Lloyd Harris, and Mr. C. A. McGeath have all been mentioned in authoritative circles here. It is believed that the two first may be eliminated from the speculation entirely, though it is regarded that Sir Russell in particular is eminently fitted for the position.

Cork Ladies Have Hair Clipped

London.—According to the Cork Evening Echo, the ladies of the Cork women's club, who, it is said, kept company with soldiers, were surrounded by four men, who clipped their hair.

News of the Provinces

MANITOBA

Winnipeg.—The settlers' fund for the purpose of populating arable land in Canada has received contributions totalling $500,000 to date, Mayor N. A. Brown, Medicine Hat, reported to the executives of the Western Canada Colonization association at a meeting here.

Brandon.—James Borden of Lacombe, Alta., was awarded grand champion and junior champion in the Ashville classes at the provincial exhibition here.

Winnipeg.—Six carloads of the 1920 wool crop have already been shipped from the provinces of Manitoba and Saskatchewan. Three cars were shipped from Regina and three from points in Manitoba. The total weight of these shipments was about 150,000 pounds.

SASKATCHEWAN

Regina.—The largest farm deal of the year in this area was transacted during the week, when a section and a quarter of land of the Corrigan estate south of Pense was sold for $100 per acre including the crop. The total purchase price was $112,000.

Saskatoon.—Discovery of a black substance thought to be of a coal or oil has been made near the river bank three miles away. Samples have been sent to Winnipeg and several claims filed. The substance burns with a red flame and develops considerable heat.

Regina.—To boost the standard of production in livestock and keep the farmer in touch with the experimenter, Saskatchewan agricultural societies are planning to spend $500,000 this year. The societies now have a membership of 20,000.

BRITISH COLUMBIA

Victoria.—There are now in operation considerably more than 25,000 automobiles in British Columbia.

Belfast.—Nine persons were killed and scores injured in a riot which has been taking place in the neighborhood of Clonard monastery.

Brother Michael Morgan, a Redemptorist, was shot dead in Clonard monastery Falls road, during the course of a serious engagement between rioters and troops. Two others were killed, William Downey and William Goffery. The belief is that Morgan was the victim of stray bullets.

There was a renewed outbreak of rioting on Keshmair road, one of the most dangerous districts. The attack against the military was of a formidable character and many were injured by stones and other missiles.

The rioters grew increasingly numbering and after a warning the troops fired, with the result that three persons were killed and fully a dozen were wounded, some of them seriously.

There was serious rioting at Balmbride, the home of Col. Smith, who was assassinated a few days ago. The rioters were seriously wounded, and after a warning the troops fired, with the result that three persons were killed and fully a dozen were wounded, some of them seriously.

Ballina, County Mayo.—Police Sergeant Armstrong was shot dead and Constable Keen seriously wounded during an exchange of shots with a masked mob which attacked the police.

Russell to Remain in Durance

No Clemency to Winnipeg Strike Leader in Immediate Future

Ottawa.—A formal application for clemency, it is stated, has not yet been made in the case of R. B. Russell, chief of the Winnipeg strike leaders, and a suggested appeal to the Imperial privy council against his sentence of two years' imprisonment. While no official announcement has been made, it is not considered likely that there will be an exercise of clemency in the immediate future.

Plates running up to 27,000 are now being issued at the Victoria Licensing office and Vancouver is working on a series culminating with 30,000.

Victoria.—According to a statement of the department of agriculture the acreage in the province devoted to potatoes is 2,500 acres, or about 4,000 acres, 47,000 acres of oats as against 25,000 in 1919, and 145,000 acres of hay, clover and alfalfa, an increase of $,900 acre.

Vancouver.—The total volume of British Columbia fruit sold in bulk or cannister, etc., in 1919, was equal to 2,668 carloads, being an increase of 1,300 carloads over 1918.

ALBERTA

Edmonton.—Another expedition to look for the bones of great prehistoric reptiles in the Red Deer Valley of Alberta has arrived under direction of Dr. W. A. Parks, of the University of Toronto. Many societies have undertaken excavations in this region in past summers, and some perfect specimens of the dinosaurs and other prehistoric animals have been uncovered and taken away.

Edmonton.—Twenty million cubic feet of gas every 24 hours from the San Joaquin well in the Peace River is the report brought down from the north this city. The gas is reported to be of the best quality and is being kept up with undiminished force and volume. Police Court News

From our own Correspondent

Re William MacDonald; Constable Bradner laid information against the accused before J.J. Brown J.P. and P. Caruthers J.P. that W. McDonald did on the 22nd day of July at his residence near Grass Lake have a quantity of intoxicating liquor in excess of one quart contrary to the Liquor Act of Alberta and amounts thereto, the accused pleaded guilty and a fine of $30.00 and costs was imposed, or in default of payment of fine to imprisonment for one month in the jail at Lethbridge but in this case the fine and costs were paid

Last Thursday we had one of the worst storms in the memory of the oldest residents here, while the rain was very welcome the wind did a lot of damage, Bob Collins, Mr. Lynde, S. Goodyear and the Provincial Telephone Coy. suffered the most

W. McDonald north east of Grass Lake was charged before Parker Caruthers and J. Brown J.P.s last Thursday July 22nd, for having in his possession a still or worm for the purpose of manufacturing spirits contrary to the Inland Revenue Act the charge being read over, the accused pleaded guilty and as this was the first offence against the accused their Worship imposed a fine of $30.00 in default of payment, six months in Lethbridge Jail, the accused did not have the amount of the fine but informed their Worship that he would be able to get some later, the accused was escorted by Constable Streetfield with a warrant of commitment to Lethbridge. The still and apparatus confiscated, same will be forwarded to Inspector of Inland Revenue at Lethbridge

Well Burdett has made good—The residents arranged for a Celebration for Peace Day on July 19th. The great attraction advertised was an Aeroplane but unfortunately owing to an accident the one engaged could not get here, in spite of a large money inducement a substitute could not be obtained and hundreds of people went home disappointed, last Monday however a free Sports Day was advertised and the Aeroplane arrived, hundreds of people came to see and many to ride with him, the general opinion of all is that Burdett had kept faith with the public, during the afternoon a bucking contest took place followed by a friendly Ball-game and a most enjoyable day was brought to a close by a Dance in the Theatre

Mr. Bagnall, Lethbridge District organizer for the October 25th. Prohibition Referendum will be in Foremost and District on August 8th. and following week

Burdett News

We notice that George Robinson's Fruit Business is growing enormously, as he is shipping to Grassy Lake, Bow Island and many other points

He says "It Surely Does Pay to Advertise" for since Advertising in the "Bow Island Review" his Trade has taken tremendous leaps and beyond his highest expectations.

So we can only say, "Get the Business, is to steadily Advertise in the "Bow Island Review" and so keep your Store Always before the Public, because if you Don't Advertise your Goods the Public at Once Know that You Haven't Confidence in Your Own Goods, as how can You expect the Public to have Confidence enough to Buy at Your Store

The Monthly Meeting of the G.W.V. A. will be held in the Council Chamber Burdett next Sunday when it is hoped all members will turn up at 3 o'clock.

I wish the Town Council of Burdett would please, keep their cows and other citizens' cows away from the houses and public places of Burdett, this week ten barrels of water have been stolen by these pests, the Citizens are getting anxious about same and wish to make a report of this pest through the paper, please take notice and have all stray cattle kept off the streets

Mrs. K. Brown is caring for Mr. and Mrs. Edlund's family during their visit to Banff

We regret to say Alfred Peterson while working for Mr. Bellin was badly kicked by a horse, he is at present at the Burdett Hotel under the care of Dr. Henderson

Major Small has sold his business to Mr. and Mrs. Wilson of Moncton, the young people are having a good run of business and have been well received by the Public

Don't forget the Dance at the Burdett Theatre on Friday July 30th, in aid of the funds of the local G.W.V.A. This local deserves great credit for the excellent work it is doing, and if you cannot come then buy a ticket

WESTFIELD

From our own Correspondent

The picnic at Westfield on July 22nd. was a success, a large crowd came, Scouts were the order of the day, Ballman and Westfield played ball in the evening, Westfield won by a narrow margin. The "Prairie Belle" Club entertained the picnickers with a short program

Mrs. Maria Elford from Minn. and her sister Mrs. Elford from Winnipeg are visiting S.T. & F.R. Elford for a few weeks
